BONELA

The Botswana
Network on Ethics, Law
and HIV/AIDS

The Botswana Network on Ethics, Law and HIV and AIDS (BONELA) is a non-governmental organization (NGO) dedicated to creating an enabling and just environment for people affected and infected by HIV and AIDS through the integration of gender sensitive, ethical, legal and human rights dimensions into the national response to HIV and AIDS in Botswana.

BONELA provides the perfect opportunity for individuals to make an effective contribution to the HIV and AIDS response in Botswana. As subscribing members, individuals have an opportunity to:

- Serve on the BONELA board and sub-committees
- Get first hand information on HIV and AIDS and human rights issues (receive quarterly newsletters, information leaflets and all BONELA IEC materials)
- Participate in the BONELA volunteer- and internship programmes
- Represent BONELA in their constituency as a focal person
- Vote at the AGM

Annual Membership Fee: P100
